

1. He rode into Jerusalem on a donkey - In the days leading up to his crucifixion and resurrection, Jesus entered Jerusalem riding on a donkey, fulfilling the prophecy of Zechariah 9:9. This act symbolized humility and peace, contrasting with the expectations of a conquering king that many in Jerusalem had.

2. Cup and bread of the Last Supper - During the Last Supper, Jesus shared bread and wine with his disciples, symbolizing his upcoming sacrifice on the cross. The bread represented his body, broken for the sins of humanity, and the cup represented his blood, shed for the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:26-28).

3. Praying in the Garden of Gethsemane - Before his arrest, Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane, asking God to let the cup of suffering pass from him if possible, but ultimately surrendering to God's will (Matthew 26:39). This moment symbolized Jesus' humanity and his willingness to endure the cross for the sake of humanity.

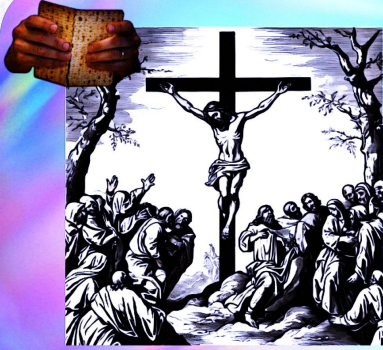

4. By his stripes, we are healed - Isaiah 53:5 prophesied that the Messiah would be wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities, bringing healing and salvation to all who believe. The stripes on Jesus' back from the Roman scourging symbolized the physical and spiritual healing that his sacrifice would bring.

5. Crown of thorns - Before his crucifixion, Jesus was mocked and crowned with thorns by the Roman soldiers (Matthew 27:29). This symbolized the rejection and mockery that Jesus endured on behalf of humanity, as well as the curse of sin that he bore on the cross.

6. Pierced with nails - Jesus was nailed to the cross by Roman soldiers, fulfilling the prophecy of Psalm 22:16. The nails driven through his hands and feet symbolized the atoning sacrifice that Jesus made for the sins of the world.

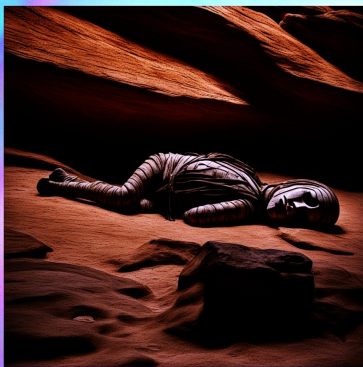

7. Placed on the cross - The crucifixion of Jesus on the cross symbolized his substitutionary sacrifice for humanity, bearing the penalty for sin and offering redemption and reconciliation with God (Colossians 1:20).

8. Torn temple cloth - At the moment of Jesus' death, the curtain in the temple was torn in two from top to bottom (Matthew 27:51). This symbolized the removal of the barrier between humanity and God, granting access to the Holy of Holies through the blood of Christ.

9. Pierced in the side with a spear - After Jesus' death on the cross, a Roman soldier pierced his side with a spear, fulfilling the prophecy of Zechariah 12:10. This event symbolized the sacrifice of Jesus as the Lamb of God, whose blood brings cleansing and forgiveness to all who believe.

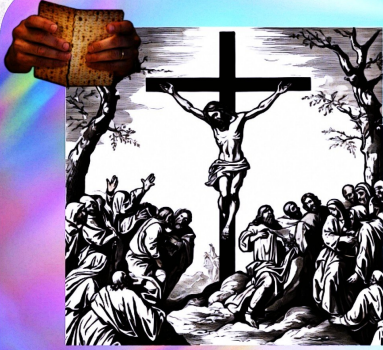

10. Wrapped in linen - After his crucifixion, Jesus' body was wrapped in linen and placed in a tomb (Mark 15:46). This symbolized the burial and sealing of his sacrifice, as well as the promise of his resurrection to come.

11. Stone rolled away - On the third day after his crucifixion, the stone was rolled away from the entrance of the tomb, revealing that Jesus had risen from the dead (Matthew 28:2). This event symbolized the victory of Christ over death and the beginning of a new era of salvation and grace.

12. Disciples looking for the resurrected savior - After the resurrection, Jesus appeared to his disciples, proving that he was alive and fulfilling his promise to rise from the dead (John 20:19). This event symbolized the hope and joy of the disciples, as well as the transformative power of the resurrection in the lives of believers.

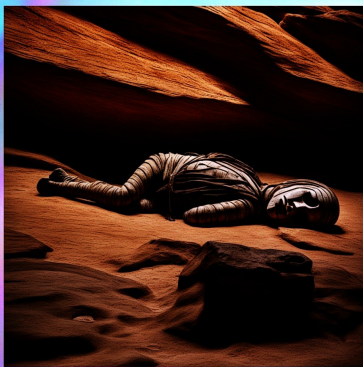

7. Placed on the cross - The crucifixion of Jesus on the cross symbolized his substitutionary sacrifice for humanity, bearing the penalty for sin and offering redemption and reconciliation with God (Colossians 1:20).

8. Torn temple cloth - At the moment of Jesus' death, the curtain in the temple was torn in two from top to bottom (Matthew 27:51). This symbolized the removal of the barrier between humanity and God, granting access to the Holy of Holies through the blood of Christ.

9. Pierced in the side with a spear - After Jesus' death on the cross, a Roman soldier pierced his side with a spear, fulfilling the prophecy of Zechariah 12:10. This event symbolized the sacrifice of Jesus as the Lamb of God, whose blood brings cleansing and forgiveness to all who believe.

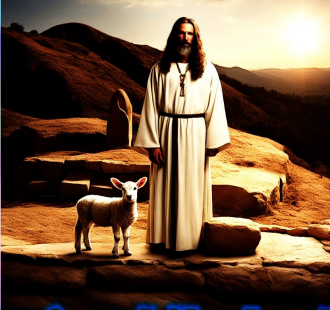

10. Wrapped in linen - After his crucifixion, Jesus' body was wrapped in linen and placed in a tomb (Mark 15:46). This symbolized the burial and sealing of his sacrifice, as well as the promise of his resurrection to come.

11. Stone rolled away - On the third day after his crucifixion, the stone was rolled away from the entrance of the tomb, revealing that Jesus had risen from the dead (Matthew 28:2). This event symbolized the victory of Christ over death and the beginning of a new era of salvation and grace.

12. Disciples looking for the resurrected savior - After the resurrection, Jesus appeared to his disciples, proving that he was alive and fulfilling his promise to rise from the dead (John 20:19). This event symbolized the hope and joy of the disciples, as well as the transformative power of the resurrection in the lives of believers.

You found the lamb!!!

In conclusion, the Bible serves as a roadmap for believers to seek out the truth of their salvation and deepen their relationship with Jesus, the lamb of God who was sacrificed for our sins. By immersing ourselves in the scriptures, we are able to gain a greater understanding of God's love for us and the redemption that is available through Jesus.